4. Application Procedures

All applications for membership will be reviewed by the Membership Committee and are subject to a background check by the Department of Environmental Conservation for possible game law violations. Upon approval, the applicant will be a probationary member for the period of six months (from date of approval). A probationary member shall enjoy all of the privileges of membership in the organization, except for the right to vote or hold office. A probationary member becomes a full member at the end of his/her probationary period automatically, unless adverse information which reflects on his fitness to be a member comes to light.

False or misleading statements in this application, or conviction of a serious Conservation law violation, shall be grounds for denial of membership. Subsequent discovery of such adverse information, or subsequent conviction of a serious Conservation Law violation, shall constitute grounds for expulsion from membership.

By my signature below, I acknowledge having read the above Application procedure and agree to abide by the same.
